KCTS 9 HONORED WITH 12 NOMINATIONS FOR 2008 EMMYS

KCTS 9's high quality local productions and commitment to the community are recognized once again by NATAS NW nominations.

SEATTLE, WA—KCTS 9, Seattle's PBS affiliate, brought in a total of 12 Northwest Regional Emmy nominations as selected by the Northwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The public television station was acknowledged in various categories and recognized as a whole for its outstanding community service. Emmy award presentations will take place in Seattle on June 7.

In a recent poll, KCTS 9 members, viewers and employees described the station as "enriching, entertaining and inspirational." KCTS 9 is proud to stand for quality programs that educate and entertain. The station continually strives to stay connected with the community, improve its quality programming, and entertain viewers. These recognitions are an indication that KCTS 9 is achieving its goals.
