AMERICAN MASTERS

Nam June Paik:

Moon Is The Oldest TV

TUE May 16 | 9p

This documentary tells the story of Nam June Paik, a pillar of the American avant-garde in the 20th century, widely regarded as "The George Washington of Video Art," who coined the phrase "Electronic Superhighway" and is arguably the most famous Korean artist in modern history. It charts Paik's artistic evolution, from his formative education in Munich, through his rise in the New York art scene and his Nostradamus-like visions of a future in which "everybody will have his own TV channel."

Fanny: The Right to Rock 🌟 MON May 22 | 10p

In 1960s sunny Sacramento, two Filipina American sisters got together with other teenage girls to play music. Little did they know their garage band would evolve into the legendary rock group Fanny, the first all-women band to release an LP with a major record label (Warner/Reprise, 1970).

Despite releasing five critically acclaimed albums over five years, Fanny's groundbreaking impact in music was written out of history ... until the bandmates reunited 50 years later with a new record deal.

The film includes archival footage intercut with the band's next chapter today, as well as interviews with music icons such as Bonnie Raitt, The Go-Go's, Todd Rundgren and more.

GP GREAT PERFORMANCES

Richard III FRI May 19 | 9p

Danai Gurira (Black Panther: Wakanda Forever and The Walking Dead) stars as one of Shakespeare's most indelible villains, Richard III. Determined to be king, Richard uses his brilliant words and dark charm to conceal his dismantling of government and justice to satisfy his lust for power as he manipulates, kidnaps or kills all who stand in his way. This drama, filmed at Central Park's Delacorte Theater, explores the muddy middle between political genius and a violent quest for power.

Flavors That Define Us

TUE May 30 | 9p

Beloved chef and Italian immigrant Lidia Bastianich travels from big cities to small towns in rural America to share the inspiring stories of first, second and third-generation Americans forging their own way, and shaping the shifting definition of what it means to be an American.

Common among this nation of 46 million immigrants is the fact that these individuals are often faced with the question of how much of their culture to bring with them, and what to leave behind.
