Celebrate Pride!

Mama Bears 🏳️‍🌈

TUE Jun 20 | 10p

Although they grew up as fundamentalist, evangelical Christians praying for the souls of LGBTQ+ people, these mothers are now willing to risk losing friends, family and faith communities to champion their kids.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

Casa Susanna 🏳️‍🌈

TUE Jun 27 | 8p

In the 1950s and '60s, an underground network of transgender women and cross-dressing men found refuge at a modest house in the Catskills region of New York. Known as Casa Susanna, the house provided a safe place for them to express their true selves and live for a few days as they had always dreamed.

Little Richard: King and Queen of Rock 'n' Roll 🏳️‍🌈

FRI Jun 2 | 9p

Little Richard was a legend from the golden era of rock. Richard was the cultural lightning rod who influenced some of rock music's most distinguished icons who join us to validate Richard's unquestionable role in rock history: Paul McCartney, Keith Richards, Mick Jagger, David Bowie, Elton John, Bob Dylan, Prince and Bruce Springsteen. As Richard boastfully claimed, "I am The King and Queen of Rock and Roll."

Wild Hope

SERIES PREMIERE

WED Jun 21 | 7p

At a time when news about the environment is filled with doom and people around the world feel increasingly fearful about the future, Wild Hope changes the narrative with surprising stories that show we can still change course. This series of short films highlights the intrepid changemakers working to restore and protect our planet. The first episode, "The Beautiful Undammed," features a local story about the largest dam removal in history, on Washington state's Elwha River. Scientists are chronicling a story of ecological rebirth and recovering salmon populations.

Bodies of Knowledge

FRI Jun 23 | 10p

Artist investigators take deep dives into often difficult subjects, like the exclusion of women and artists of color from major art institutions, or explore their own personal fascinations, like the hidden math underlying centuries of visual patterning. These artists pilot new ways to understand ourselves and the world at a time when a belief in truth and the historical record is fast eroding.

The program follows the legendary art collective Guerrilla Girls as they guide a mobile monument through New York City's most august art institutions. Also featured is Hank Willis Thomas as he builds and installs his historical photography-inspired Martin Luther King memorial on Boston Common.

Below the Belt: The Last Health Taboo

WED Jun 21 | 10p

Through the lens of endometriosis, a disease that affects one in nine women, this film shows how women are often dismissed, discounted and disbelieved. From societal taboos and gender bias to misinformed doctors and profit-driven health care, the film reveals how millions are effectively silenced and how, by fighting back, they can improve healthcare for everyone.

POV

After Sherman
SEASON 36 PREMIERE
MON Jun 26 | 10p

In the wake of Southern violence, "After Sherman" documents the imparting of wisdom between generations of African Americans on how to survive not just materially, but spiritually.

Georgetown, South Carolina, is a community deeply rooted in Gullah culture. Filmmaker Jon-Sesrie Goff spent childhood summers there soaking up stories on his grandmother's porch.

On June 17, 2015, Goff spoke to his parents as they were on their way to lead a quarterly meeting at Mother Emanuel church. Within hours, nine parishioners were shot dead, including Reverend Pinckney. His parents were unharmed and Goff's father was appointed interim pastor of Emanuel AME Church. In a state of shock, he began to create "After Sherman."
