Flyways

WED Feb 7 | 8p

Shorebirds fly thousands of miles each year along ancient and largely unknown migratory routes called flyways. Species travel from the southern hemisphere to the Arctic regions and back again, flying up to nine days nonstop. But their populations are crashing. Follow a conservation movement of bird-loving experts and citizen scientists as they mobilize to meet the challenge of understanding and saving shorebirds.

2-NIGHT SERIES PREMIERE

MON Feb 12 | 9p

From the blues to hip hop, African Americans have been the driving force of sonic innovation for over a century, and there's one sound that has been a constant source of strength, courage and wisdom on any given Sunday. Gospel, the latest history series from Henry Louis Gates, Jr., digs deep into the origin story of Black spirituality through sermon and song.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

Fly with Me

TUE Feb 20 | 9p

This documentary about new frontiers for working women and the constraints of traditional notions of femininity tells a story about both exploitation and activism. Maligned as feminist sellouts, stewardesses, as they were called, knew differently: They were on the front lines of a battle to assert gender equality and transform the workplace. Through firsthand stories and a rich and extensive archive, Fly with Me tells the history of the women who, while flying the world, changed it.

Sister Úna Lived a Good Death

MON Feb 5 | 10p

Following a cancer diagnosis, Sister Úna — a wisecracking Catholic nun dedicated to social justice — chooses to live as she's dying. In Sister Úna Lived a Good Death, we follow the self-proclaimed "leader of the misfits" in her last nine months as she plans her funeral, attempts to complete her bucket list and confronts what it means to let go.

Breaking the News

MON Feb 19 | 10p

A scrappy group of women and LGBTQ+ journalists band together to buck the white male-dominated status quo and launch *The 19th, a digital news start-up. Named after the 19th Amendment, which gave women the right to vote, but with an asterisk to acknowledge the Black women and women of color who were omitted, their work is guided every day by the asterisk — asking, Who is being omitted from the story, and how can they be included?

NATURE

Patrick and the Whale

WED Feb 21 | 8p

Patrick Dykstra has traveled the globe following and diving with whales, learning how whales see, hear and perceive other creatures in the water. In Dominica, Patrick has a life-changing encounter with a female sperm whale who seems curious about him, coming within touching distance, and pulsing him with her sonar. She studies him as he studies her. Journey underwater with Patrick and the whale as she shows us the hidden world of her species.
