Stonewall Uprising: American Experience
from the president

Thanks to the bipartisan polling team of Hart-American, PBS is able to hear directly from its most important stakeholder—the American public. And once again, I’m pleased to tell you that Americans across the political spectrum continue to view PBS as highly trusted and an excellent taxpayer value.

For the eighth year in a row, Americans have ranked PBS as the country’s most-trusted institution. Forty-four percent of those polled say they have “a great deal” of trust in PBS. When respondents were asked to rate the best value for taxpayer dollars, support for PBS ranked second only to support for military defense.

We are proud to have our viewers’ trust, thanks to thoughtful PBS programming like FRONTLINE, PBS NewsHour, Nature and Masterpiece, as well as our own local productions such as Conversations at KCTS 9 and KCTS 9 Connects. All of this programming is made possible by viewers like you.

Thank you for your continued support of KCTS 9.

Maurice “Moss” Bresnahan, President & CEO

THE AMERICAN PUBLIC HAS NAMED PBS THE MOST TRUSTED PUBLIC INSTITUTION FOR 8 CONSECUTIVE YEARS

America’s largest classroom, the nation’s largest stage for the arts and a trusted window to the world.

Lemony Shrimp & Orzo

This colorful spring dish is a quick and easy meal.
SERVES 4

- 1 cup uncooked orzo pasta
- 1 bunch asparagus, trimmed and cut into bite-size pieces
- ½ red bell pepper, cut into strips
- 1 tablespoon unsalted butter
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1½ pounds cooked large shrimp
- 2 tablespoons fresh garlic, minced
- 3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- 3 tablespoons chopped fresh Italian parsley
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper

Cook orzo according to package directions. During the last 2 minutes of cooking, add asparagus and red pepper. Drain orzo and vegetables; transfer to a large bowl. Cover and keep warm.

Meanwhile, as the orzo cooks, melt butter and oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Add shrimp to pan and sauté 2 minutes or until heated through.

Add garlic to pan and cook quickly, about 30 seconds, stirring constantly. Stir in lemon juice, parsley and pepper; cook 1 minute until lemon is incorporated.

Add shrimp mixture to the pasta and toss together before serving.
