The new series’ cast includes Benedict Cumberbatch, Hugh Bonneville, Judi Dench, Sophie Okonedo and many more.

Hoppin’ John

To bring good luck in the year ahead, it’s Southern tradition to eat this dish on New Year’s Day. Recipe from A Chef’s Life Holiday Special, compliments of Chef Vivian Howard.

Serves 6 Serve as a side dish.

- 1 cup dried black-eyed peas
- 1 teaspoon cooking oil
- ½ cup diced double-smoked slab bacon
- ½ cup chopped Spanish onion
- 1 boneless ham hock, diced (¼ lb.)
- 1 fresh chili pepper, slit on one side
- 1 sprig of fresh thyme
- 6 cups water or stock
- 1 cup long-grain white rice
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

Sort and wash the peas, picking out stones. Reserve.

Heat a 4-qt saucepan over medium heat. Add the oil, then the bacon. Cook, stirring the bacon without browning. Add the onion and cook until soft and translucent.

Add the reserved cleaned peas to the pot, along with the ham hock, hot pepper, thyme and water. Bring the mixture to a boil and reduce to a simmer. Cook for approximately 45 minutes until the beans are three-quarters tender, and not mushy.

Measure the liquid remaining in the pot; at this point you should have 2 cups of liquid. Add water if needed. Add the rice along with ½ teaspoon of salt and black pepper to taste. Return the pot to a boil. Reduce to a simmer and cook covered for 15–20 minutes. Remove from the heat and let the carry-over cooking finish the Hoppin’ John until the rice is tender.

Serve hot or at room temperature.

A NEW DIGITAL SERIES

BATTLE READY: The Military’s Environmental Legacy in the Northwest

Since the 1940s, when workers in the Northwest were building ships and planes for World War II, our region’s natural and human resources have been a vital part of U.S. military readiness. This contribution, however, has come at a cost that was not fully understood at the time, and that our region is still paying today.

This innovative new digital series from EarthFix and KCTS 9 includes interactive segments on topics from Liberty ships and the Boeing B-17 to plutonium production and the Hanford nuclear site. The series also looks at the military presence in the Northwest today, including recent steps the military has taken to protect wildlife whose survival depends on the same habitat where soldiers, sailors and pilots train for war.
