VICTORIAN SLUM HOUSE

PREMIERES TUE May 2 | 8p

American Masters: Jacques Pépin
Nature: Dolphins – Spy in the Pod
National Memorial Day Concert 2017
Victorian Slum House
FIVE-PART SERIES PREMIERES
TUE May 2 | 8p
A Victorian tenement in the heart of London’s East End has been painstakingly brought back to life, and a group of 21st-century people is moving in to experience the tough living and working conditions of the Victorian poor. Their new home is totally authentic: a forbidding building made up of sparse rooms, a shared water pump and outdoor privies. With jobs such as candle-making, wood-turning and repurposing old clothes for the rag trade, their priority is to earn enough money to put food on the table and pay the weekly rent.

NATURE: Dolphins – Spy in the Pod
TWO-PART SERIES PREMIERES
WED May 3 | 8p
One of the most social animals on the planet, dolphins form tightly knit pods that are always on the move. This series explores their world with 13 ingenious spy cameras—including a robotic turtle and a dolphin “double agent”—revealing the complex, unexpected and often humorous adventures of these wonderful sea mammals.

American Epic
THREE-PART SERIES PREMIERES
TUE May 16 | 9p
In the late 1920s, record companies toured America with a portable recording machine and for the first time captured the raw expression of an emerging culture. Their recordings democratized music, gave a voice to the poorest in the nation, and provided the moment when America first heard itself. In American Epic, filmmakers follow the recording machine’s trail across the United States to rediscover the families whose music was recorded by it—music that would lead to the development of the blues, country, gospel, folk music and much more.
